

Alex Kwok

✉ a.kwok0191@gmail.com

in http://www.linkedin.com/in/alextckwok

Education

Bachelor of Computer Science (Candidate)

2022- Current)

University of British Columbia, Canada

Master of Science, Global Health

2015 - 2016

Maastricht University, The Netherlands

- Thesis: Hemophilia Care in India – Quantitative Study
- Exchange: Thammasat University (Human Security Track), Thailand

Bachelor of Medical Laboratory Science

2009 - 2014

University of British Columbia, Canada

Program Language: Java, C++, C , Python, HTML/CSS/JS, SQL

Frameworks & Technologies: ReactJS, R, Microsoft Suite, Power BI, Tableau, SPSS, Canva

---

Professional Development and Project

Clocked In

January 2025

nwHacks 2025, UBC

- Created a habit-tracking app for groups, enabling a user to track daily goals, share photo proof, and maintain streaks.

Mini-MBA – Strategy Consultant

August 2022

University of the West of England

- Applied management consulting frameworks to analyze organizations, identifying operational efficiencies.
- Developed strategic recommendations for business growth and change management initiatives.

---

Work Experience

Clinical Researcher

June 2018 – September 2022

Arthritis Research Canada

- Managed a multi-province randomized controlled trial study assessing e-learning program for arthritis patients, ensuring protocol adherence and timely participant engagement.
- Co-authored research manuscripts and research newsletters focusing on arthritis healthy living
- Developed interactive e-learning modules using Storyline 360, integrating accessibility and user experience.
- Coordinated the operation and logistics of multiple arthritis programs
- Managed database (Microsoft Access) of 550+ participants and performed queries for data analysis.

Policy Research Assistant

March 2018 – September 2018

British Columbia Council for International Cooperation (BCCIC)

- Assessed community policy alignment with United Nations global indicators, identifying gaps and recommending improvements.

Alex Kwok

✉ a.kwok0191@gmail.com

in http://www.linkedin.com/in/alextckwok

- Researched Canada's development indicators across various governmental levels, compiling data for policy recommendations
- Facilitated NGO roundtable discussions, leading brainstorming sessions on effective implementation of UN goals

Public Health Intern

April 2017 – October 2017

Global Medicare Foundation, Buea, Cameroon

- Conducted a quantitative study on water shortages and health, utilizing survey methodologies to collect and analyze data..
- Led door-to-door surveys, engaging with local communities to ensure representative data collection.
- Prepared advocacy reports and policy briefs, presenting findings to municipal government officials.
- Organized health campaigns with local NGOs, coordinating logistics and outreach strategies.

Research Intern

May 2016 – August 2016

Novo Nordisk, India

- Conducted research on hemophilia healthcare gaps in India, performing literature reviews and stakeholder interviews.
- Designed and disseminated surveys to policymakers, doctors, and patients, ensuring comprehensive data collection.
- Analyzed survey responses using statistical tools, identifying trends and presenting findings to department heads.

---

Leadership Experience

NCD Lab Steering Committee Member – People Living with NCDs

February 2021 – Present

World Health Organization in partnership with NCD Alliance

- Non-communicable Disease (NCD) Lab is an incubator and provides a platform to gather innovative solutions that support the NCD and NCD related global health agenda.
- Took part in deliberations on defining evaluation criteria of a innovative health program.
- Reviewed and casted support on health programs that would receive support from WHO for scaling and accelerating program success.

One Young World Ambassador

September 2022

- Awarded the AstraZeneca Young Health Programme scholarship to attend the One Young World Summit in Manchester. The summit gathers the brightest young leaders from 190+ countries to discuss the most pressing issues confronting the world.
- One of twelve recipients selected from 3000+ applicants from more than 150 countries for leadership in global health advocacy

NCD Young Leader – NCD Child Young Leaders Program

January 2021 – September 2023

NCD Child

- Part of the first cohort of young health advocate leaders worldwide convened to champion youth-centred NCD policies, write opinion pieces/ policy briefs/ op-ed
- Represented youths at the 2022 World Health Assembly in Geneva, engaging with policymakers on youth representation.

Co-Director, MentorNet Program

February 2019 – December 2023

Canadian Association for Global Health

- Co-led a team of six steering committee members in running the program, ensuring timely execution of mentorship initiatives.
- Provided guidance and delegated tasks to team members to ensure timely completion of activities, including program evaluation, learning module development, and mentor-mentee communications.
- Managed participant recruitment and oversaw program evaluation, implementing feedback mechanisms to improve effectiveness and engagement
- Exercised conflict resolution among mentorship pairs by means of mediation.

UN Youth Delegate

July 2018

New York, USA

- Represented BC youths at the United Nations High-Level Political Forum in New York, engaging with policy makers on the topic of climate action and youth inclusion.
- Developed policy briefs summarizing key takeaways and proposed action steps.